Welcome

I am happy to welcome all new and returning students to Sydney TAFE. This guide will provide you with everything you need to know to get started. From enrolment and your first day, to services and support - we’ve got you covered.

Sydney TAFE is one of Australia’s oldest and largest training providers. We have been providing career-focused education for over 120 years. We help students get to where they want to be with their careers.

You will be attending one of seven colleges within the Sydney CBD and metropolitan area with some of the best training facilities in NSW. You will be able to enjoy numerous amenities that Sydney TAFE has to offer as well as the quality of life in and around the city.

Be sure to use our Careers Connect career service – see page 59. They can help you get a job while you’re still studying and find you a position in your industry when you graduate.

To find out what’s happening around your campus, ask the Student Association. They will be able to fill you in on all the concerts, exhibitions and special events occurring throughout the year.

You are now part of the Sydney TAFE community! So make some friends, enjoy your study and don’t forget to have some fun too.

Best wishes,

David Riordan
Institute Director

Getting started

Orientation

At your first class, your teacher will give you essential information about Sydney TAFE, your college and your course.

This information will ensure you have a learning experience that is safe, successful and rewarding.

Get your TAFEcard

You need to have a photograph taken after enrolment to receive a TAFEcard.

The TAFEcard is a student identification card that is provided to students enrolling in a TAFE NSW course, including Sydney TAFE courses. It displays the student photograph, name, student ID and a barcode. The TAFEcard is not a travel concession card.

The TAFEcard is compulsory for all students. It does not have an expiry date. Your existing TAFEcard is automatically re-activated for your current enrolment year.

Your TAFEcard is a smart card that provides access to all TAFE NSW college libraries and can store a value via a magnetic stripe account. It can be used on a range of services which may be offered at your campus such as access to parking and classrooms, photocopying and printing.

If you choose to join the Student Association, your TAFEcard will be marked with the TAFE NSW Student Association identifier, entitling you to benefits on and off campus.

You should carry your TAFEcard whenever you are on college grounds and you must present it to any member of staff who asks to prove your student identity.

Your TAFEcard must be produced for identification when sitting for Sydney TAFE final examinations.

Treat your TAFEcard with care and do not allow it to be used by another person.

You should contact your college Customer Service Centre if you have:

- missed the TAFEcard enrolment photographic session
- experienced problems using your TAFEcard
- lost or damaged your TAFEcard (a $20 replacement fee applies).

Travel concessions and passes

Travel concession cards

All full-time students and first, second and third year apprentices are entitled to a Transport for NSW (TfNSW) Travel Concession.

TfNSW define a full-time student as a person studying a minimum of 20 hours per week, for a minimum of nine weeks.

Students NOT eligible for a TfNSW Concession include:
- external students (e.g. OTEN students)
- part-time students
- Temporary Visa holders.

To receive a travel concession, you will need to provide your college Customer Service Centre with your current Enrolment Form or Sydney TAFE fee receipt. Your enrolling officer must note the total number of hours per week you are studying on these forms.

You will then be asked to complete a TfNSW concession application form which you will need to sign in to consent to TAFE NSW supplying your details to TfNSW in order for you to apply for a travel concession Opal card online at https://www.opal.com.au/ordercard?execution=e1s1

The NSW Government has supported the provision of travel concessions to International students. Further details are available by contacting the Bookshop.

Return of travel concession cards and/or travel passes

If you withdraw from your course, you are expected to return your travel concession and/or travel pass to your college Customer Service Centre.

First year apprentices or trainees

When the NSW Department of Education and Communities (DEC) writes to you to notify you that your application for an apprenticeship or traineeship has been approved, a Travel Concession Application Form will be provided to you together with information on how to apply for a Travel Concession Card.

Second year apprentices

Apprentices who do not receive their Travel Concession Card should inform their employer.

Employers should contact their local NSW DEC State Training Centre or phone 132 811 for more information.

Travel passes

Students under 18 years who meet certain requirements may be eligible to receive a free travel pass to use on journeys to and from their Sydney TAFE college. Please contact the Customer Service Centre at your college for more information.

Please note that the conditions you must meet to gain a travel pass or concession are set by Transport for NSW (TfNSW) and private bus companies that issue travel passes. Sydney TAFE must ensure that the rules and regulations of these authorities are strictly met.

The NSW Government has supported the provision of travel concessions to International students. Further details are available by contacting the Bookshop.

Return of travel concession cards and/or travel passes

If you withdraw from your course, you are expected to return your travel concession and/or travel pass to your college Customer Service Centre.

School leavers under 17 years
In NSW, students are required to complete school to Year 10 and then, until at least 17 years of age, continue in either:

> full-time education (years 11 and 12)
> training (apprenticeship, traineeship or enrol in a vocational qualification) > paid employment or > a combination of these.

Sydney TAFE can provide vocational training and learning support to help you to get a job or go on to further training. Under exceptional circumstances, we will offer Certificate II vocational courses for young people who are under 17 years of age and have not completed Year 10.

Traineeships
Traineeships are a great way to learn a new skill or vocation and secure your future. Trainees usually work for three or four days a week while also studying at TAFE and earning a trainee wage.

Typically traineeships last one or two years and provide training in areas such as children’s services, marketing, tourism and real estate. You can fast track your traineeship through our incentivised, accelerated programs or, alternatively, you can undertake short intensive programs or pre-vocational courses, as well as school-based apprenticeships.

In 2016 the NSW government has capped traineeship fees at $1000.

For more information visit sydneytafe.edu.au/future-students/thinking-studying/apprentice-or-trainee

Apprenticeships
Entering an apprenticeship is a great way to secure your future and there are a huge range of options available at Sydney TAFE. You will learn a skill or trade through a combination of work and structured training leading to a nationally recognised qualification. Usually you will work three to four days a week while studying at TAFE and earning an apprentice wage.

Apprenticeships last three or four years and cover traditional trades such as hairdressing, carpentry, electrotechnology, plumbing and some less traditional trades, including hospitality. There is also a range of fast-track, pre-vocational and school-based apprenticeship programs available.

In 2016 the NSW government has capped apprenticeship fees at $2000.

For more information on apprenticeships visit sydneytafe.edu.au/future-students/thinking-studying/apprentice-or-trainee
Pathways

TVET

The TAFE delivered vocational education and training program (TVET) allows Year 11 and Year 12 school students to get a head start on their vocational education by studying a Vocational Education and Training (VET) course as part of their Higher School Certificate (HSC).

Depending on the course, you may study at a Sydney TAFE college, at your school or at a Trade School. Some TVET courses will also help you gain a place at university by contributing to your ATAR, while also allowing you to get an industry qualification at the same time.

For more information please contact your TVET Consultant, page 29.

University

Sydney TAFE has developed strong links with Australian universities to ensure our students have a clear pathway to university education.

With more than 435 agreed higher education pathways via more than 80 nationally recognised courses, we can help you get closer to achieving a degree with one of Australia’s leading universities or higher education providers.

Sydney TAFE offers four key pathways to university.

1) Credit transfer agreements

Credit transfer is a form of recognition for previous study based on formal arrangements which have been negotiated between TAFE NSW and higher education providers. Credit transfer can significantly reduce the time it takes to complete a degree and can take various forms including specified, unspecified and block credits. Currently we have agreements with more than 18 different Australian universities and higher education providers.

2) Fast track degree partnership programs

We offer several exciting programs in partnership with the University of Wollongong and Charles Sturt University which allow students who graduate from selected linked-in Advanced Diplomas to receive up to two years’ credit in three-year degrees.

Sydney TAFE diplomas and advanced diplomas also offer credit pathways into the Federation University Australia’s Bachelor of Applied Management at St George College and the Bachelor of Hospitality (Management) at Ultimo College.

3) Tertiary Preparation Certificate

The Certificate IV in Tertiary Preparation (TPC) is suitable for people who may not have had the opportunity to qualify for university entry through traditional study pathways such as the Higher School Certificate (HSC). The TPC will help develop a broad range of skills necessary to gain entry to and succeed in tertiary education and employment. The TPC is considered equivalent to the HSC.

4) Get a degree at Sydney TAFE

In 2011, Sydney TAFE bridged the traditional gap between vocational training and university by introducing its first degree – the Bachelor of Design (Interior Design) at the Design Centre Enmore.
Building upon the success of this inaugural program, Sydney TAFE is proud to offer the following degree and associate degree programs directly:

- Associate Degree of Accounting
- Associate Degree of Applied Engineering (Renewable Energy Technologies)
- Bachelor of Applied Finance (Financial Planning)
- Bachelor of 3D Art and Animation
- Bachelor of Design (Interior Design)
- Bachelor or Early Childhood Education and Care (Birth to 5)
- Bachelor of Fashion Design
- Bachelor of Property Valuation.

Your student portals

What is DEC Student Portal (sPortal)?
The DEC Student Portal is a free, personal and password-protected internet and email account that is supplied by the NSW Department of Education and Communities (DEC).

The DEC Student Portal provides secure access to internet browsing and your own student email account. It is also a gateway to various online resources, including eLearning/Moodle. You are encouraged to check this email account for messages from your teachers.

All students are given a DEC Student Portal account when they enrol in a Sydney TAFE course. If you are a first-time student who enrolled on campus, your DEC Username/User ID (identity) and password is provided to you on the receipt for payment for your Sydney TAFE fee. If you enrolled online, it will be provided to you by email. These details must be kept secure at all times.

Re-enrolling and continuing students retain their existing DEC Username/User ID and password for their DEC Student Portal and Learner Portal (see next page).

Students must remember to log off/out of any online systems they access via the sPortal and to sign out of their email (Gmail) account. Simply closing browsers, instead of logging off/out, means that other students who might use a college or library computer may be able to access your account.

How can I access the DEC Student Portal (sPortal)?
As a student, you can access the DEC Student Portal from any location with internet access. Visit sydneytafe.edu.au and:

- click on the red ‘Logins’ quick link at top right, or
- select ‘Current Students’/ your college/ ‘Getting started’/ ‘Logins and online access’, or
- go directly to student.det.nsw.edu.au

You will not be able to use the internet or email services provided without an active DEC Student Portal account.

How do I activate my DEC Student Portal account?
To activate your DEC Student Portal account, log on to the DEC Student Portal, agree to the Terms of Use, then:

1. select the Change Password link and change your password to something you can easily remember
2. set-up your three secret questions and answers. (The Change Password browser also provides the option to set up your own secret questions and answers. The secret questions allow you to access the DEC Student Portal and Learner Portal (see below) when your password expires every three months or if you forget your password.)
You can change your password at any time once you have activated your DEC Student Portal. This information must not be shared with other students. Internet access and usage is recorded against each student’s DEC User ID.

Before you can print or photocopy at any of the Sydney TAFE libraries, you will first need to activate your DEC Student Portal account. Printing and copying will then be enabled within 24 hours of your DEC Student Portal account being activated.

What if I have a problem? Who do I contact for help?
If you have difficulty accessing the DEC Student Portal, or if you cannot remember your DEC Username/User ID or password, you should contact our Information Centre on 1300 360 601 or the Customer Service Centre at your college.

The Learner Portal
The Learner Portal is an online website designed for learner self-service which is accessed by single sign-on via the DEC Student Portal. It is designed to accommodate a variety of learner and enrolment types and will encourage learners to manage their content and interactions online with a ‘self-service’ approach.

The Learner Portal allows learners to manage several elements of their TAFE experience, including:

> viewing institution-specific announcements and individual learning plans, including assessments, assessment results, unit outcomes, outstanding fees, charges, previous payments and timetabled events;
> requesting Student Assessment Guide;
> accessing online learning resources;
> updating personal details, except name and date of birth changes; > navigating to the TAFE NSW website and DEC Student Portal Services; and > making fee payments, including instalments, by Mastercard and Visa, and generating a fee statement to pay fees offline.

Learner Portal interacts in real time with the system used by Sydney TAFE staff for enrolments and study outcomes. It also allows the Learning Management System (LMS) link to appear on its My Learning Plan page, even if the learner has outstanding enrolment fees.

Exams and assessment

Exams/Assessments
At the beginning of the semester, your teachers will let you know the assessment method for each subject including which ones have final exams. You will have to show your TAFECARD as identification before sitting for each exam.

Calculators, dictionaries, textbooks
Check the Student Assessment Guide as to whether these can be used in your exam. This information will also be on the cover of your exam paper.

Final state-wide exams
Final state-wide exams are conducted outside normal class time. Exams for each module/unit are scheduled at the same time, on the same date throughout NSW. Exams are normally held over several weeks in June and November.

Exam timetables
The timetables for mid-year and end-of-year final state-wide exams will be displayed on notice boards as follows:

> mid-year exams by April.
> end-of-year exams by September.

Please check your timetables regularly for changes.

Final state-wide exam times may differ from the day and time of your normal classes.
Room allocations will be shown on the notice boards before the scheduled exam dates.

Students with disability
If you have a disability which may affect your ability to complete an exam, or complete it in the required time, contact your teacher or disabilities teacher consultant. They will determine if you qualify for special concessions (e.g. a modified exam).

Clash of exams
If you have two exams scheduled for the same time on the same date, you must apply to sit for one of the exams at another time on that date. You should contact the Customer Service Centre at your college at least three weeks before the scheduled exam date to submit your application.

Exam attendance
You should be seated for the final exam at least 15 minutes before the scheduled starting time. You must have your TAFEcard or some form of photo identification with you when you sit for exams.

Malpractice in exams and assessments
If you engage in malpractice, such as copying, colluding with another person, using unauthorised notes, or exposing work papers in such a manner that another student may copy them, you will be liable for disciplinary action.

The penalties for malpractice range from failure in the subject being examined to a period of exclusion from the college. In some situations, a police prosecution may also occur.

Failure in a module/unit (on two occasions)
If you wish to re-enrol in a subject after receiving two Fail results in that module/unit within a three-year period, you are required to submit a request in writing to your Faculty Director showing cause as to why you should be re-enrolled.

Your enrolment fee only covers your first attempt of a unit of competency. From 2016 Semester 2 if you have withdrawn and/or failed a unit you will need to pay a fee to reenrol into that unit as a second attempt.

Missing an exam
If you miss a final exam, or arrive late due to illness or circumstances beyond your control, you should contact the Customer Service Centre at your college. You must provide justifiable reasons for consideration to be given that will allow you to sit for the exam at the next scheduled exam period.

Exam results
Result notices are posted to your postal address approximately four weeks after the exam period. This is why it is important for us to have your current address at all times.

Assessment
General information about assessments and details of the assessment events relating to the different units of competency in your course are contained in the Student Assessment Guide. You will receive a copy at your first class.

It is your responsibility to read the Student Assessment Guide/s provided by your teachers and you must sign a statement to confirm that you have received and understood the assessment procedure relating to your qualification/units of competency.

You must submit assessment work and attend scheduled assessment events on the required dates.

What happens if I miss a formal assessment activity or an exam, or if I’m late with an assessment task?
It may be that no result can be awarded for the assessment. So you should contact your teacher as soon as possible, giving reasons for your lateness or absence. For assessments you have seven (7) days to do this, or until the day of the next scheduled attendance, whichever comes first. For final examinations in Category A or B (exams that are centrally set and timetabled), you have ten (10) working days. Your teacher will inform you about the revised examination date, which may not be until the following year.

Where possible, you should provide evidence to support what you say – for example, a medical certificate. In some cases, your teacher may accept a late assignment or allow you to sit for a test at a later date. With final exams, you may be able to attempt the exam at the next scheduled examination period – usually several months later.

How much notice will I receive about assessment tasks?
There will be a range of assessment tasks that you will undertake during your study. On commencement of each unit, all adequate assessment information will be provided to you in the ‘Student Assessment Guide – Unit of competency’. Your teacher will give you adequate notice of the assessment event, depending on the duration of the unit. If you are unsure, always ask your teacher.

Discipline and appeals
Appeals
Information relating to assessment appeals can be found in the Student Assessment Guide for your qualification and the Student Assessment Guides for the units of competency you will study. You will receive this information at your first class. Further information relating to assessment appeals can be viewed in Every Student’s Guide to Assessment in TAFE NSW, which can be downloaded from https://www.det.nsw.edu.au/policies/assessment/tafe/stud_assess/Every_Students_Guide.pdf.

Your results will be checked before you receive your Transcript of Academic Record. You are able to request a review of your results if you have a valid reason. Or you can ask for special consideration. You may also lodge a formal complaint about the assessment process or decision.

If you wish to request a review of your results, contact your teacher or head teacher. If they are unavailable, contact a Customer Service Centre officer, at the college where the result was recorded, within 14 days of receiving your results.

Your teacher will either address the appeal in accordance with TAFE NSW procedures on reassessment and review of results or refer the matter to an educational manager, where appropriate. The relevant educational manager’s contact details and availability will be listed in the assessment information provided to you on enrolment.

The process for appeals on assessment matters must address and record any complaints or concerns expressed by students. Such complaints or concerns might relate to misinformation provided by a member of Sydney TAFE staff – for example, inadequate or inaccurate provision of information in relation to assessment requirements, the provision of inappropriate learning materials or refusal to respond appropriately to a student’s concerns. The appeal process is simple and direct and ensures that students are readily able to register honest concerns.

Should you wish to appeal the decision, you will be supplied with the relevant Assessment Policy – TAFE NSW, which can be viewed at here.

Please also refer to the exam failure result information on page 44 of this guide.

Discipline

Sydney TAFE provides you with the opportunity to study, learn and develop skills in a safe and healthy educational and social environment. When you sign and date your Enrolment Form, or complete your enrolment online, you declare that the information you have given is correct and you agree to abide by the TAFE NSW Student Discipline Policy.

A breach of discipline can occur when a student acts (on or off Sydney TAFE premises) in a way that adversely affects the freedom of others to study, work or participate in Sydney TAFE activities and/or the management of Sydney TAFE, College or Student Association activities.

A breach of discipline will incur penalties as listed in the TAFE NSW Student Discipline Policy, which can be viewed at dec.nsw.gov.au/tafe-student-discipline-policy

A designated officer will consider (within 21 days of the breach) if the student has a case to answer. Notice in writing will be delivered (either by post, or served personally) to the student within 28 days of the breach, detailing all relevant information, along with a copy of the policy. The student has the right to make both oral and written submissions with respect to matters related to student discipline.

Penalties can include:

> a reprimand
> a fine (not exceeding $200) > payment of compensation
> failure in an assessment > assessment results and transcripts being withheld > exclusion from the use of specified facilities (for up to 12 months) > suspension from classes (for up to 12 months) > set conditions for future behaviour > expulsion.

Temporary exclusion from classes or use of facilities

Any students misusing equipment or facilities may be banned from using the equipment or facilities for up to 24 hours. Teachers have the right to exclude from class any student who fails to comply with accepted standards of behaviour. Any member of staff who believes that a student has breached discipline may exclude that student from TAFE premises for the remainder of the day on which the alleged breach of discipline occurred. The circumstances of these incidents will be reported to an Sydney TAFE manager for appropriate action.

For clarification on students’ rights and responsibilities, and copies of the Student Discipline Policy, visit dec.nsw.gov.au/tafe-student-discipline-policy
Classes and attendance

Attendance
You are expected to attend classes regularly, as well as complete and submit work in accordance with the assessment requirements for each module/unit. (Refer to the Student Assessment Guide for your qualification and for the units of competency you will study, which you will receive at your first class). Failure to complete course requirements will lead to course failure. If you are sick or otherwise unable to attend class, you should contact your teacher.

Classes
All courses run only if there are enough resources and demand. Classes may be discontinued if attendance numbers fall below a set minimum. Advice will be given in advance of any changes.

During the first week of each module/unit in your course, you will be provided with:
- an outline of the subject
- special health and safety requirements
- the student assessment guide for the units of competency you are studying
- conduct requirements.

Enrolment

Personal details
You should promptly notify your college of any changes to personal details so that your enrolment can be amended. Enrolment Adjustment Forms are available from Customer Service Centres or from your head teacher. They can also be downloaded from tafensw.edu.au/courses/enrol/forms.htm.

You should use this form to record the following:
- change of name (original documents such as a marriage certificate must be provided)
- change of address (postal and/or residential)
- change of telephone number > change of employer contact details (for apprentices only).

> It is your responsibility to inform Sydney TAFE of any changes that need to be made to your student records.

You are encouraged to change your address and telephone number through the Learner Portal, page 43.

Enrolling
You can enrol and register for most courses online – visit tafensw.edu.au or sydneytafe.edu.au for more information. Some courses require students to attend compulsory information sessions, tests or auditions prior to enrolment. In this case, you may need to apply for the course online before visiting your college in person.

As an enrolled student, you are provided with a TAFEcard (see page 8) that enables you to access services and borrow books from college libraries. A username and password to enable internet, email and Student Portal access is also provided to you as part of the enrolment process. For more information about enrolments or courses, contact the Customer Service Centre at your college.

Recognition

What is recognition?
You can apply to Sydney TAFE to have your previous study, work and/or life experiences recognised. Ask about recognition when you enrol in your course. You may also receive recognition for Sydney TAFE and TAFE NSW courses when you enrol at university.

Recognition and credit transfers reduce the time it takes to complete a course.
You will need to provide evidence or demonstrate that your skills meet the learning outcomes of the module/unit of study for which you are claiming recognition.

Credit transfer is the recognition of specified learning previously completed at a TAFE NSW Institute (including Sydney TAFE). When you enrol in a new course, you may be given what is known as ‘advanced standing’ based on TAFE NSW courses you have already completed. You are able to apply for a credit transfer at the time of enrolment.

Applying for recognition

Once you are enrolled, you may apply for recognition in any module or unit of competency in the course you are undertaking.

There is no additional charge for recognition services once you have paid the Sydney TAFE fee, or concession fee, or have been granted a fee exemption.

Recognition services in Sydney TAFE currently enable students to apply for up to 100 per cent of a Sydney TAFE qualification.

For further information, visit sydneytafe.edu.au/recognition

When to apply

It is best to apply for recognition at the time of enrolment, before classes begin. However, you can apply for recognition at any time up until 50% of the unit you are applying for recognition for has been delivered. You will need to attend classes until you receive the outcome of your recognition application.

Lodging your application

The relevant teacher or head teacher can give you initial advice on the recognition process and advise you about the evidence needed to support your claim.

Refund

You will entitled to receive a refund or reduction in future fee instalments once recognition has been granted.

Overseas qualifications

Students can also gain recognition for overseas study, work or life experience. Sydney TAFE will only assess overseas qualifications against Sydney TAFE modules/units of study.

Before applying for recognition, you must have your supporting documents translated into English.

Assessment and notification

Your knowledge and skills may be assessed in a variety of ways including via portfolio, practical test, demonstration, interview or a combination of these processes. In assessing applications for recognition, Sydney TAFE will be looking for evidence that is:

> relevant: your evidence must show that your skills and knowledge match the learning outcomes and competencies of the module for which you wish to receive recognition > authentic: it must be your own work or about your own work > sufficient: there must be enough evidence to show competency > evidence of currency.

Steps to recognition

1. Check the competencies of the qualification you have enrolled in.
2. Do you already have the skills or experience to apply for recognition?
3. Speak to your teacher and plan your Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).
4. Collect evidence to prove your skills and knowledge. You may have to undertake an assessment at this stage.
5. Discuss the evidence with the teacher who is assessing your RPL application. You may be asked for further evidence at this stage.
6. If your application is successful, you will not need to complete any further training. If you are unsuccessful, you will be advised of what further study you need to undertake to complete the unit.
Further information about recognition

Sydney TAFE has a recognition website located at sydneytafe.edu.au/recognition. Your teacher or head teacher can provide you with information and advice on recognition.

Withdrawing

Students studying a full-semester subject may withdraw from that subject up to the end of the fifth week without a failure being recorded.

If you apply for a withdrawal after the five-week deadline, or drop a module/unit without applying for a withdrawal, you will have a Fail result entered on your record. Institute managers have the discretion to grant a withdrawal after the five-week deadline has elapsed, but only if there are exceptional circumstances.

From 2016, if you have withdrawn and/or failed a unit, you will need to pay a fee to re-enroll in that unit for a second attempt.

You may want to withdraw from a course if:

> you chose the wrong course > the level is too hard for you > you can’t cope with the workload > you have financial problems > you have some personal problems getting in the way of study > you can’t relate to other students/your teacher > you want to spend more time with your family/friends > you thought this course was a good idea, but after enrolling, you’ve changed your mind.

Seek advice and support first

If you are considering withdrawing due to personal reasons, it is important that you receive appropriate support and encouragement. Your teacher and college counsellors may be able to assist you in completing your studies in the future.

Counsellors are experienced in dealing with students’ problems. Their service is free, friendly and completely confidential. Counsellors can offer advice on an alternative plan or course, which may reduce the problem. They can also help you with the paperwork involved in withdrawing from a course. For more information on counsellors, see page 26.

If you are considering withdrawing because you are dissatisfied with the course, its delivery, or for other reasons related to your experience at Sydney TAFE, it is important to raise your concerns with a member of staff so these causes can be addressed. Sydney TAFE is committed to delivering a high-quality, customer-focused educational service and we’d like to know if you think something isn’t working.

How to apply for withdrawal

Collect a Request for Course Withdrawal Form from your college Customer Service Centre and return it once it is completed.

Re-admission

If you withdraw from a course and later decide to re-enrol you will need to re-apply.

Fees and costs

Fees

When you enrol to study at Sydney TAFE, your course will either be government-subsidised or attract a full fee-for-service.

You will be required to meet eligibility criteria for Sydney TAFE courses that attract a government subsidy.
To meet the eligibility criteria for enrolling in government-subsidised courses, you must:

> be aged 15 years or older > have left school
> live or work in NSW > be an Australian Citizen, Permanent Resident, Humanitarian Visa Holder or New Zealand Citizen.

If you are not eligible to enrol in a government subsidised course, you will still be able to enrol in the course by paying the full fee for service charges.

Course fees for government-subsidised courses at all Registered Training Organisations, including Sydney TAFE, are set by the NSW Government.

The full fee-for-service for all our courses is set by Sydney TAFE.

For more information on government subsidised qualifications, eligibility and fees, please view:

> the State Training Services Fee Administration Policy and > the NSW Government Subsidised Training – Fees and Refunds – TAFE NSW Policy or > visit your College’s Customer Service Centre.

Not all eligible enrolling students are required to pay the government subsidised course fee. You may be entitled to receive a fee exemption or concession if you receive a benefit or allowance from government organisations such as Centrelink or the Department of Veterans’ Affairs.

Fees are payable at enrolment and, depending on the course, can be paid in full or by instalment (see next page). There are various opportunities to get help with your fees. Sydney TAFE also awards a number of scholarships (see page 35) each year.

Financial assistance

VET FEE-HELP

> Sydney TAFE is an approved provider of VET FEE-HELP student loans, which means eligible students don’t have to pay any course fees up front – and only repay the loan when their income reaches a certain level. This means you can study now and pay later.

> Eligible students studying diploma, advanced diploma, vocational graduate courses and a limited number of certificate IV courses can apply for VET FEE-HELP. For more information, visit sydneytafe.edu.au/courses/vetfeehelp

FEE-HELP

FEE-HELP is an interest-free Commonwealth loan that assists eligible full-fee paying students to pay their tuition fees (and is paid directly to the education provider).

FEE-HELP covers the cost of tuition fees for any units of study at the associate degree or degree level. A Commonwealth Government-imposed loan fee of 25% applies to FEE-HELP, but there is no application fee for FEEHELP and no interest charged on the FEE-HELP debt.

Trade Support Loans

Designed to help apprentices with the cost of living and learning, Trade Support Loans offer flexible loans of up to $20,000 to apprentices in the form of monthly payments, which can be repaid through the tax system when your income meets the repayment threshold.

To qualify, you need to live in Australia and be an Australian citizen (or hold a permanent visa). You also need to be studying:

> a certificate III or IV level qualification that leads to an occupation on the National Skills Needs List; or > a certificate II, III or IV agricultural qualification; or > a certificate II, III or IV horticulture qualification while working in rural or regional Australia.
For further information, call the Skilling Australia information line on 13 38 73.

For more information about financial assistance with your Sydney TAFE fees, visit sydneytafe.edu.au/courses/help-your-fees

Paying in instalments

You can pay in instalments if:

> your course has a minimum course fee of $500 OR you are a concession student > your course is 12 weeks or more in duration, and > if VET FEE-HELP is not available for your course.

If your course fee is less than $500 or your course is shorter than 12 weeks in duration, fees need to be paid in full at enrolment. For VET-FEE HELP eligible courses, you must have applied for a VET-FEE HELP loan, or paid for that unit of study, by the census date.

For more information about paying in instalments, visit sydneytafe.edu.au/courses/payments

Outstanding fees

If you have outstanding or unpaid fees in the current or previous year, please contact your Customer Service Centre and organise payment as soon as possible. If you have not paid your fees, you are not entitled to attend classes and you will not receive any of the following documents:

> transcript of academic record > record of successful study > statement of competencies achieved > report to employer > testamur (the document you receive on graduation).

Repeating a Unit of Competence

Your enrolment fee covers only your first attempt of a unit of competency. From 2016 if you have a Withdrawn/ Fail or Not Yet Competent result code you will need to pay a fee to re-enrol into that unit as a second attempt.

Each unit of competency has been assigned a price band of High, Medium or Low. Where there is the need to repeat a unit there will be, where possible three options made available to you:

> Assessment only – the assessment is re-attempted with no tuition provided
> Tuition and assessment – tuition arrangements are put in place to support areas of need and then followed by the assessment
> Repeat the whole unit – the full unit is repeated with same or similar delivery and assessment arrangements

Students are encouraged to consult with their teacher or head teacher to determine the most suitable option to choose.

The price band assigned to the unit, coupled with the option chosen will determine the fee to be paid to repeat the unit.

The bands will remain consistent throughout your enrolment in this course however the fee attached to each band will be updated annually.

The annual fees will be provided to you as a separate document and are also available from the head teacher.

You can request a free replacement transcript at any of our Customer Service Centres.

You can apply for a replacement testamur (the document you receive on graduation) at your college of enrolment by completing the TAFE NSW Application form for a replacement testamur/confirmation of award and paying the $75 fee. The $75 fee is charged for lost, damaged or stolen testamur/confirmation of award (COA).

Results
Result notices for studies completed mid-year are issued in July, and for studies completed at the end of the year, in early January. If you believe there may have been a mistake with a result, you can apply to your teacher for it to be reviewed.

Testamurs for all courses are issued on successful completion.

Your results will not be released to any other person or organisation unless you provide your written consent, or the records are subpoenaed.

Your results will not be released if you have any current or previous years’ TAFE NSW fees outstanding.

Graduation
After all the hard work, comes the public recognition. Once you have finished your course, make sure you attend your graduation ceremony. These are usually held between April and June each year. Family and friends are welcome to join you. Additional graduation ceremonies are sometimes also held for students who finish their courses mid-year.

If you cannot make it to your graduation ceremony, please check with the Customer Service Centre at your college to make alternative arrangements for the collection of your testamur.

However, within the Act, you are permitted to make a copy of published work for the purpose of research or study. This is called fair dealing.

A reasonable guide to fair dealing would be:
> one article in a periodical

Policies and procedures
Access to information

The Government Information (Public Access) Act

The Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 encourages the proactive release of information. The Act establishes four ways for the public to access government information:

- mandatory disclosure – information required to be publicly available on the DEC internet
- proactive release – the proactive releasing of information into the public domain
- informal release – in response to requests from the public
- formal access – a formal application process for the release of information.

The Government Information (Public Access) Act focuses on the broader notion of information, which is compiled, recorded or stored in writing or electronically. The law encourages informal, as well as formal access applications.

The guiding principle of the Government Information (Public Access) Act is the public interest. It is a ‘push’ model, with a general presumption that disclosure of information is in the public interest unless a strong case to the contrary can be demonstrated. Under the Act, it is compulsory for Sydney TAFE/ TAFE NSW to disclose information about their structure, functions and policies. The proactive and informal disclosure of other information is promoted and encouraged. Formal access applications should only need to be lodged as a last resort. Where formal applications are required, the Act sets out the process that applicants and Sydney TAFE/ TAFE NSW need to follow, as well as the options for review of access decisions.

Further information about the Government Information (Public Access) Act can be viewed at ipc.nsw.gov.au/privacy/ipc_index.html

Student information is not provided to anyone other than Sydney TAFE/ TAFE NSW staff and the student concerned. A student may give written consent to release information about themselves. Student records are not provided to anyone over the telephone (including students).
Exam marks are confidential and may only be released to authorised Sydney TAFE/TAFE NSW staff. Employers of apprentices are entitled to receive an Employer Report. These reports are produced automatically at the end of each semester and provided to employers. Work Health and Safety (WHS)

Emergencies

You should become familiar with all fire and emergency exits, especially those closest to the classrooms you use. An emergency evacuation plan is displayed in student areas and classrooms.

In the event of an emergency or unsafe incident (chemical or water spill, smoke odours or unusual objects) – do not panic. If you are the first to notice, immediately tell your teacher or another Sydney TAFE staff member.

Students aren’t expected to fight a fire or attempt to rectify an unsafe situation. Students must leave the building or other areas when requested and follow directions given by staff.

Evacuation

Depending on the situation, your teacher may ask you to evacuate your building.

If this happens, you will be required to:

- commence evacuation when directed
- switch off plant and equipment
- if directed, close doors and windows OR open doors and windows for bomb threat
- assist people with disability
- WALK, NOT run
- NOT use lifts
- go to designated assembly areas
- NOT re-enter buildings until instructed.

Should an evacuation be necessary, please carefully follow the instructions given by security officers, work health and safety services, floor wardens and staff members.

If this happens, you will be required to:
> close and lock windows and doors
> close blinds and turn off lights > gather people together out of sight > switch off mobile phones > place teacher/manager phone on silent
> KEEP CALM AND REMAIN QUIET
> barricade door with furniture if necessary > await instructions of lockdown completion.

Duties of other persons at the workplace
A person at a workplace (whether or not the person has another duty under this Part) must:

> take reasonable care for his or her own health and safety > take reasonable care that his or her acts or omissions do not adversely affect the health and safety of other persons > comply, so far as the person is reasonably able, with any reasonable instruction that is given by the person conducting the business or undertaking to allow the person conducting the business or undertaking to comply with this Act.

This duty therefore applies to students, visitors and any other people who may be at a TAFE workplace. Your teacher will provide more specific information about how you, as a student, can comply with this legislation and contribute to taking care of everyone while at TAFE. Below is some general guidance about work health and safety.

Protective clothing
Where personal protective equipment is a specified requirement for a class, you will not be permitted to enter or remain in any teaching area unless you are wearing those items. You are responsible for providing your own personal protective equipment.

Eye and ear protection
You must wear acceptable eye or ear protection in any area that has been declared an eye or ear safety area. Students not wearing protective equipment will be excluded from these areas. Students must provide their own eye or ear protection.

Equipment
If you are bringing your own equipment to TAFE classes you must ensure that it is safe. If you are unsure about the safety of your equipment, please discuss it with your teacher. In some circumstances, you may be prohibited from bringing your own equipment to classes.

Footwear
You will not be permitted to enter or remain in any site location, practical work area, workshop or laboratory if you are barefooted or not wearing appropriate footwear that offers sufficient protection. Footwear such as open-toed shoes, platform shoes, stiletto heels, thongs, sandshoes and joggers are not permitted in the above areas.

Any injuries suffered while on Sydney TAFE premises or property or during course activities away from Sydney TAFE premises must be reported to your teacher. An Injury/Illness/Incident Report for Students, Contractors and Visitors Form must be completed and submitted as soon as possible.

Management of risk of harm to students and staff
Sydney TAFE is required by law to ensure the health and safety of students, staff and visitors on our premises. In order to meet these legal obligations, it is necessary for us to assess and manage any known risk of violent behaviour.

If you have a history of violence that may suggest that you could pose a potential risk of any type to Sydney TAFE students, staff and/or visitors it is a condition of your enrolment to advise the campus manager, a Sydney TAFE counsellor or your head teacher prior to attending your first class.

For these purposes, violence is not restricted to physical acts. It includes any behaviour in the last ten years that seriously interferes with the physical or psychological safety and well-being of others, such as:

> actual violence to any person > possession of, or use of, a weapon or any item with the intention to cause harm or injury to others > threats of violence or intimidation of others > suspension or expulsion from any school or educational institution for violent or aggressive behaviour.

Sydney TAFE is committed to offering vocational education and training to the entire community. Following your advice of a potential risk, we will carry out an assessment of the risk and, if necessary, provide support and a management plan. Only in exceptional circumstances will a risk assessment lead to exclusion from enrolment. It is our aim to provide an appropriate safe environment to suit every student’s needs and to maximise their study success.
